JACK O'LANTERN CONTEST

October 25th
11 am - 2 pm

SEPTEMBER MEETING MINUTES

Steve Latragna—Asst. Director, opened the meeting at 7:04 pm by welcoming everyone.

Cycle Stop had their Open House today. Judy thanked everyone, she couldn't have done it without us. Steve handled demo rides.

The Bake Sale went well and we did very well. Thank you to everyone that contributed with their time and donations! It was a very nice day except for the bees.

The "leftovers" from the bake sale were available for sale at the meeting.

Treasurer - Judy will be our treasurer for the rest of the year and will balance the checkbook this week.

With elections coming up we will be looking at our expenses. Holiday party. Where? Club T-shirts.

We are looking for a place for our holiday party. Tentative date of January 24, 2015.

Steve spoke about the day of Dack's funeral. Thanks to everyone at the funeral. It was like he was a foreign dignitary. Class A job by those that went and the Patriot Guard.

Ed said you don't have to be past military to be part of the Patriot Guard.

Sally was in to see Judy. She couldn't thank us enough for Dack to be treasurer. It meant a lot to him. Family helping family - don't stop!

Ladies Of Harley—Diane Latragna

At the October meeting we will be collecting items for a local Food Shelf.

In November we will be collecting hats, gloves and scarves.

Newsletter—Carol Tastor. Do you have any stories and/or pictures for the newsletter? Maybe from a trip or ride you had this summer?

Activities—Bill Hamilton asked about a Haunted hayride out in Williamson. Ed mentioned Haunted train ride? Bill will find out and get the info to Carol. (Bill checked and we will not be able to arrange for this year)

50/50 raffle and door prize winners. Jim, Ralph, Ed, Sylvia, Sue, Bill.

Meeting closed at 7:31pm
